

BURGLARS CAUGHT.

Two Were Working on a Safe in a Brooklyn Store.

Policeman Reilly Has a Desperate Struggle With One Thief.

They Carried Revolvers, a Sandbag and Skeleton Keys.

Policemen Reilly and Meehan, of the Liberty avenue station, had a lively time capturing two daring burglars in the store of the Great Atlantic and Pacific Tea Company, at 2629 Atlantic avenue, Brooklyn, shortly after midnight this morning.

The policemen noticed the rear door of the store open, and upon entering saw the two burglars at work. One of them was packing stuff in a bag, while the other one was working on a safe with a dark lantern.

The men saw the two policemen in time to put out the light.

Patrolman Reilly grabbed one of the men and held him prisoner. The burglar fought desperately. He threw the policeman down and both men rolled about the floor, Reilly clinging to the burglar's hands so that it was impossible for him to use the dark lantern.

He finally dragged the man outside in the light, where he surrendered.

The other burglar had managed to escape through the door while Policeman Reilly was wrestling with his companion.

He ran down Atlantic avenue, pursued by Policeman Meehan, who finally captured him.

The two men were taken to the station, where they described themselves as James Kelly, aged twenty-seven and Benjamin Vaughn, aged thirty. They said they were waiters employed in a New York restaurant.

Both men were armed with 32 calibre revolvers, fully loaded. Vaughn had sectional keys and a heavy sand bag.

They are undoubtedly professional burglars. Kelly is thirty years old, about five feet eight inches in height, of a fair complexion, and wears a small yellow mustache. Vaughn is about two inches taller than his partner. He has dark hair and a heavy black mustache.

They were arraigned later before Justice Connelly in the Gates Avenue Police Court, and held on a charge of burglary.

STOLE A LAWYER'S COAT.

Thief Can Have Coat and Money If He Will Return Legal Papers.

Lawyer S. D. Levy, of 40 Park Row, is anxious to-day to find the tall, handsome, well-dressed man who "borrowed" his overcoat without asking permission yesterday in the Special Term part of the Superior Court.

Mr. Levy was interested in an argument and requested a friend to sit down upon his overcoat for safe keeping.

The friend had left the chair and drew closer to hear the argument. When he looked back some time later, he saw that the chair which he had vacated was occupied by a woman. The coat was still there.

When the lawyer was ready to go home he looked for his coat. It was gone. The woman explained that a tall, handsome and well-dressed man had asked her to allow him to take his coat. The coat contained legal papers relating to the case of Lynch against Hovey, which was to be tried in the city court to-day. Mr. Levy advised that if the papers were returned he would relinquish his claims upon the coat and some $40 or so which it also contained.

THEY SMUGGLED JEWELRY.

Customs Inspectors Seize Costly Gems at the Dock.

Jewelry to the value of about $800 was seized last night on the dock where the Kaiser Wilhelm makes her berth, by Special Customs Inspectors Donohue and Brown, and to-day the confiscated property was turned over to Collector Kilbreth.

The jewelry is said to belong to D. Ruca and F. Carlo, cabin passengers on the Kaiser Wilhelm. As they left the steamer last night, it is alleged, Ruca carried his overcoat and a parcel to a friend in waiting. Inspector Donohue, at once intercepted him and in the pockets he found a gold, sapphire and pearl bracelet and a ruby and diamond earring. In the parcel was a ladies' locket and chain. Carlo, at this point made an effort to get away from the dock, but was prevented. In his hat was a gold watch, a pair of diamond earrings, another and a pair of earrings and a handsome carbuncle ring.

ROBBED BY TWO SHARPERS.

Barbon Gave $1.05 to Get a Mythical Position.

John Murphy, of 342 Second avenue, and John Graham, of 1346 Broadway, were arrested in the Tombs Police Court to-day with larceny and were held for Special Sessions.

Peter Barbon, of 15 Washington street, a Dane, who came to this city from Albany, was the complainant.

Murphy and Graham met Barbon at the corner of West street and Park place, and upon promising him a job, got $1.05 from him, all the money he had.

The janitor of a nearby building, who saw the transaction, caused the arrest of the men.

Believe the Larc was Stolen.

Charles McGlone, thirty-three years old, of 173 Rector street, and James Green, twenty-three years old, of 122 East street, were arrested in Rector street yesterday trying to display a Herman point lace, which the police of the Sixth Precinct believe was stolen.

Grip-La Grippe?

Which is Right? That depends. Before you have had it you may use the French word if you like. But after it has once got hold of you, plain Anglo-Saxon will be good enough. Remember, however, that it frequently originates in a cold, attacking the back, chest or limbs, and that an if applied in time will ward it off. Then you can use French all the time.

Beware of imitations, and do not be deceived by misrepresentations. Ask for Allcock's Porous Plaster, and let no solicitation or explanation induce you to accept a substitute.

TWO BUBES IN HIS THROAT.

Strangely Afflicted Cuban Arrested for Forgery.

Cancerous Growth Necessitates Severe Surgical Operations.

Graciliano Baez was arrested at the City Hospital on Blackwell's Island at noon to-day, on a warrant issued by United States Commissioner Lyman, charging him with forgery committed while he was a Government official within the kingdom of Spain. The information against Baez was sworn to by the Spanish Consul-General, who was taken steps for his extradition to Havana, Cuba.

Baez was reported to the United States Marshal as being very ill, and a physician was sent to the hospital to examine him. His condition before an attempt was made to remove him. The doctor's report states that Baez has been suffering for the past three months with a cancerous growth in his throat. An operation was performed on him some time ago, and a silver tube inserted in the windpipe to assist him in breathing. Subsequently it became necessary to perform another surgical operation, so that he might take food into his stomach without passing it through his mouth.

The physician said Baez was able to go to the Commissioner's office without danger to his health.

United States Marshal Jacobus has telegraphed the Attorney-General of the United States for permission to detain Baez in the Brooklyn Marine Hospital pending his extradition.

Alleged Police-Dealer Held.

Justice Walsh, in the Adams Street Police Court, Brooklyn, to-day held James Cohen, twenty-four years old, of 42 Fifth street, for alleged sale of stolen property.

Cohen was arrested yesterday by Detectives Ryan and Kelly, of the Central Police station, on a charge of selling stolen property. He is thirty years old, about five feet eight inches in height, of a fair complexion, and wears a small yellow mustache. Vaughn is about two inches taller than his partner. He has dark hair and a heavy black mustache.

They were arraigned later before Justice Connelly in the Gates Avenue Police Court, and held on a charge of burglary.

PUGLISI SENTENCED TO DIE.

He Killed Landlord John Tutalo with a Sword.

Judge Moore Defends the Jury That Tried Him.

Pietro Puglisi, the aged Sicilian who was convicted of murder in the first degree, was sentenced to-day by Judge Moore in the Court of Sessions, Brooklyn, to be hanged at Sing Sing during the week beginning June 1.

Puglisi as he stood before the bar made a very picturesque appearance. He is short, with sharp features and dark skin, and an old bandanna tied around his head gave him much the appearance of a pirate of the seas. In reply to the usual question asked by Clerk York, the condemned man said he was sixty years and two months old, a laborer, and had been in the country of his birth, Italy. In passing sentence Judge Moore remarked:

"The jury which convicted you have been subject to a great deal of unjust criticism because they recommended you to be hanged at Sing Sing. They knew, and so stated in court, that such recommendation could have no legal effect, but they desired to commute your punishment to imprisonment for life. That shall not be done."

The prisoner, who heard the sentence through an interpreter, took the matter very coolly.

On Feb. 6 last Puglisi was ejected from his lodgings in South Brooklyn, by John Tutalo, a landlord. This man quarrelled and exchanged blows. Tutalo ran away and Puglisi swore that he would kill him when he next met him. He armed himself with a sword and lay in wait for his victim. That night the men met, and Puglisi ran the sword into Tutalo's body. He died the next day. Puglisi escaped, but was captured in Mulberry street a few days later.

ACCUSED OF BLACKMAILING.

Levison Charged with Getting Money as a Detective.

Frank Levison, twenty-six years old, who refused to give his name when arrested, was arraigned at Jefferson Market Police Court to-day, and remanded. He is charged with blackmailing.

On Wednesday, it is stated, he called on Ellen Smith, of West 12th street, and displayed a gold-plated badge, which he represented to be that of a detective. Then he asked her to lend him a few dollars would give him a passport to the city.

Smith, who is a widow, refused to do so, and then notified Policeman Carey, who arrested Levison, and the money was found in his pocket.

STOLE MRS. ABBOTT'S TRUNK

Some Thief Took It from an Express Wagon.

The Brooklyn police are looking for a trunk belonging to the wife of Surgeon Abbott, of Kings County, which was stolen yesterday from a truck standing in front of an express office at 4 Court street, Brooklyn.

Mrs. Abbott intended visiting friends at Lakewood, N. J., and checked her trunk for that place. An expressman took it from her home, 21 Pierck street, yesterday afternoon. A half hour later some thief lifted it from the wagon in one of the busiest portions of the city.

Competition Made Him Mad.

Moses Hausmann, thirty-two years old, of 73 Rector street, was committed to the island for three months by Justice Felt in Kings County Court to-day. Morris Kahn, of 54 Rector street, was the complainant.

Hausmann yesterday the latter chased him through the street and threatened to kill him with a pair of scissors. Hausmann told Justice Felt that Kahn had gone to his employers and offered to do the same for $15 a week less than he was receiving.

Accused of Stealing Wires.

In the Harlem Police Court this morning Matthew Hausmann, thirty-five years old, of 62 East One Hundred and Thirty-fourth street, and William Thomson, forty-six years old, of 111 Ninth avenue, both electricians, and Patrick Hogan, a junk dealer, of Fifth-avenue street and first avenue, were remanded in the custody of Detective Gilligan and Bremer, of the East Eighty-eighth street station, on a charge of stealing wires from the Harlem Electric Light Company. The electricians were employed by the company.

Trolley from Newark to Jersey City.

NEWARK, N. J., April 20.—The electric railway between this city and Jersey City, will be opened at 8.30 o'clock to-morrow morning and regular trips under ten minutes' headway will be begun. The cars will run until 1.15 o'clock at night, the last car leaving the street car ferry at that time. The Consolidated Traction Company has completed arrangements by which the cars will be run by the New York and New Jersey Electric Light and Power Company, which is to be made for 25 cents, which is 5 cents cheaper than the present arrangement. The railroad will be operated by the New York and New Jersey Electric Light and Power Company, which is to be made for 25 cents, which is 5 cents cheaper than the present arrangement. Bar Association Membership.

The Committee on Admissions of the Bar Association is considering some alterations in the system, which it adopted, will make a great change in the standard of admission to membership. It is proposed that in order to be admitted a lawyer shall have practiced fourteen years. The committee, which consists of twenty-one members, of which Henry W. Tarkenton is Chairman, is inclined to favor the "university" plan, and will probably submit it to the members at the next meeting.

WORKING IN THE FOG.

Loantaka and Comanche Move Fast Through the Mist.

Trainers Enthusie Over the Work of Sir Modred's Fast Son.

Daly's Two-Year-Olds Race Half a Mile at Top Speed.

GRAVESEND, L. I., April 20.—A thick fog rolled in from the sea this morning and none of the trainers got their charges out late. The fog placed the trainers, for they say it is a tormentor of fine, warm weather. Despite the muggy atmosphere some excellent moves were made this morning.

Loantaka did some of the best work of the season. He cantered a couple of miles and then was sent a mile and a furlong. He covered the distance in 2:03.4, pulling up strong. He travelled smoothly and in excellent style. McCoun's two-year-old Iceland worked a bit in 0:52.1.4.

Comanche, who is being trained by Jimmy McLaughlin, was "hot ragged." He worked six furlongs in 1:13.3.4, with a 100-pound boy sawing his head off. Afterwards he cantered a mile, fighting for his head all the way. This colt is in grand shape, and he is in the Brooklyn very light.

McLaughlin also had Madstone and the Exile colt out, the pair working very fast. Madstone, who was given a mile in 1:51, and Tormentor and Werapah were given a mile and a furlong. Madstone covered a mile in 1:51.4, and Tormentor in 1:51.4.

McLaughlin also had Madstone and the Exile colt out, the pair working very fast. Madstone, who was given a mile in 1:51, and Tormentor and Werapah were given a mile and a furlong. Madstone covered a mile in 1:51.4, and Tormentor in 1:51.4.

KICKED BY A POLICEMAN.

Dying Boy Says an Officer Assaulted Him.

He Cannot Recognize Either of Two Suspected Men.

Detectives Corcoran and Hayes, of the Bedford avenue station, Williamsburg, are working on a case in which some officer, whose identity has not yet been established, may be charged with murder.

On Friday night of last week Joseph Maguire, fourteen years old, of 106 South Fourth street, returned to his home and complained that he had been kicked in the stomach by a policeman. He said that he was moving in cranking style.

Jim Dwyer gave Appomattox seven furlongs in 1:35.4, and Roller six furlongs in 1:21.2.2. Skelton had a strong canter. Pieschman's lot worked in two sets and Elliott gave Shelby Tuttle seven furlongs in 1:38.

Declare moved six furlongs in 1:24, going in taking style. The brother to Eolian and a colt by Bishop, worked a half in 0:52.1.4.

It is said that the secret society known as the New York Club has decided to prohibit jockeys from owning racehorses. This is directed at Garrison, but they desired to commute your punishment to imprisonment for life. That shall not be done.

The prisoner, who heard the sentence through an interpreter, took the matter very coolly.

On Feb. 6 last Puglisi was ejected from his lodgings in South Brooklyn, by John Tutalo, a landlord. This man quarrelled and exchanged blows. Tutalo ran away and Puglisi swore that he would kill him when he next met him. He armed himself with a sword and lay in wait for his victim. TEN JURORS FOR DR. MEYER.

Panel Exhausted and an Adjournment Taken Until Monday.

A Fifth Panel of 150 Talsmen to Be Drawn for That Day.

With nine jurors in the box to try Dr. Henry C. F. Meyer for poisoning Ludwig Brandt to death in March, 1892, and the possibility of the speedy completion of the jury, came a little activity on the part of the prosecution.

Carl Muller, the detained witness who claims to have been associated with Dr. and Mrs. Meyer in the conspiracy to defraud the insurance companies by means of a substituted corpse, and who testified as an eye witness to the poisoning of their fellow-conspirator, was again in court to-day.

Last night Hermann Hellstrom, the Norwegian reporter from Chicago, who identified the photographs of the dead man as the portraits of Ludwig Brandt, his former co-worker on a Norwegian newspaper, was arrested by Policeman 24 Sixth avenue, in the West Twenty-third street station. It was feared that he would not be on hand when wanted.

The arrest of Hellstrom started the rumor that a witness had been found who was present at the death of Ludwig Brandt, as a matter of fact, he has not been Brandt since the Summer of 1891, and he testified on the former trial of Dr. Meyer.

The jurors selected were: WEISBERG, JOHN W. Foreman; a clerk for Tolt, Waller & Co., who lives at 254 Seventh avenue.

WEINBERG, OTTO A., publishing business, at 181 West 12th street, 18 East Eleventh street.

WEINBERG, JACOB C., restaurant keeper, 415 East Twenty-third street.

GROUSE, CHARLES, hardware, 144 Second avenue.

MIDDLEBROOK, EUGENE O., printer, 35 Vesey street, 134 Third avenue.

MANVILLE, HENRY, baker, 117 West Twenty-seventh street; residence, 306 Amsterdam street.

BEHRY, SAMUEL S., traveling salesman for Phillips & Company, 444 Broadway, residence, 22 East Seventh street.
